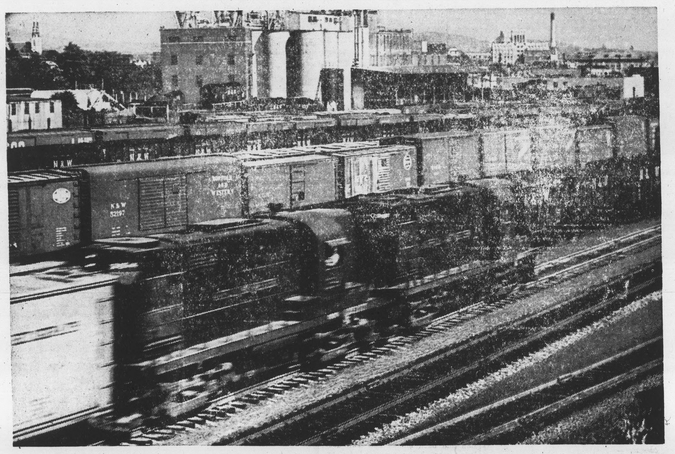
A Report FROM THE N&W TO THE COMMUNITIES WE SERVE



During 1960 — our first full year of merged operations with the former Virginian Railway — the N&W has become a stronger, more efficient and more productive transportation system, providing better service for communities along its lines. Here are some highlights of last year's operation and service.

As a going railroad, the N&W hauled 17,000,000 TONS OF MERCHANDISE FREIGHT . . . raw materials for your factories . . . scores of things you needed for your family . . . millions of tons of the products you manufactured, grew and mined were delivered to markets of the nation and the world.

Moved 61,900,000 TONS OF COAL AND COKE . . . to keep factory wheels turning, to generate electricity, to heat schools, hospitals and homes, to help make steel and countless other products.

As a going industry and employer, the N&W paid $102,800,000 IN WAGES, SALARIES AND FRINGE BENEFITS to its employees — your friends and neighbors . . . railroad dollars that helped to boost your community's economy.

Spent $41,600,000 FOR CAPITAL IMPROVEMENTS to build a better, more efficient railroad . . . for new cars and locomotives, expanded yards, additional industrial sidings, more modern communications and other betterments . . . plus $28,000,000 FOR SUPPLIES used in day to day operation and maintenance. These purchases meant business for local merchants, service industries, suppliers and contractors.

As a going industrial developer, the N&W helped to bring 236 NEW AND EXPANDED PLANTS along its lines . . . with an investment of $161,300,000, creating 8,464 jobs. The N&W spent more than $1,000,000 for industrial development, strengthened its Industrial Department and began a two-year survey with Fantus Area Research of manufacturing potential throughout the entire territory.

As a going citizen, the N&W is paying a TAX BILL of $48,600,000 to federal, state, community and county governments . . . railroad tax dollars that help pay for schools, highways, police and fire protection, parks, libraries and other public benefits.

Friends and customers of the Norfolk and Western in hundreds of communities helped us to make these things possible. To them we pledge our continued efforts for increasingly better service, and to their communities, we pledge our continued cooperation in working for growth and progress.

Seventh-day Adventist News

The Press Secretary for the Seventh-day Adventist Church of Appomattox, Mrs. Robert Fore, says Seventh-day Adventists with all Christians believe there is much in a 'hand-shake' and a hearty exchange of friendly greetings. They plan to devote a portion of their Sabbath P. M., March 4, in doing just that— or as they often refer to as "Ringing Door Bells for God." They also believe that Christian Service is not just an attitude, it Is Action. They say God's idea isn't much different: to worship consists in working together with Christ. The Doing principle, is the fruit that all Christians are required to bear. They will at this time distribute helpful and timely tracts. Mrs. Fore continues: "When the readers of your paper hear their door bells ring next Sabbath, March 4, she hopes they will respond with a gracious smile; they will feel better, and by doing so, the callers will be made very happy. She is sure God will be pleased, too. This is an annual program, sponsored by all Seventh-day Adventist churches.

Memorial Church Activities

Rev. W. S. Tongue, pastor of the First Methodist Church, Lynchburg will be the instructor for the course. "Basic Christain Beliefs" in the Christian workers' Training School to be held in Memorial Methodist Church, March 13-17, 1961. The Class sessions will begin each evening of the week at 7:30 O' Clock, with four separate classes being offered in the school. Dr. T. F. Carroll, Superintendent of the Farmville District, will teach the Class on the Methodist Discipline; Mrs. W. E. Reed, will instruct the Workers with Children and Mrs. Lowell B. Hazzard, of Washington D. C., will direct the class for Workers with Youth.

Every officer, teacher, worker and all members of the Woman's Society of Christian Service and members of the several Official Boards and Men's Clubs are expected to be present each evening for the discussions. Credit may be obtained if a person attends four of the five nights of the School.

The Lenten - Holy Communion will be administered at both services in Memorial and every member and prospective member is urged to be present. The services will begin the last three months of the current conference year.

The special Series of Evening Lenten will continue with the minister's sermon subject: "Carying His Cross," and based on the Via Dolorosa Way experience. The Youth Choir will furnish special music. At the morning hour, the Sanctuary Choir will give a special selection and the Communion Meditation will be: "Only By Prayer."

The Church Conference on last Sunday voted to instruct the Building Committee to proceed with the proposed plans for the erection of the New Church Sanctuary and Church School buildings as rapidly as details could be completed. A more definite statement of specific progress will be released in the very near future.

DEATH

Walter D. Chernault

Appomattox- Walter David Chernault, 46, a farmer of Rt. 3, Appomattox died at his home Tuesday night after an illness of one month. He was born in Appomattox County Feb. 26, 1916, son of Mrs. Janie Colman Chernault and the late Jesse J. Chernault. He was a member of New Hope Baptist Church. Surviving in addition to his mother are five brothers, Russell A. Chernault, Henry T. Chernault, James Chernault, Clark Chernault, all of Appomattox, Robert H. Chernault of Arlington, seven sisters, Mrs. E. O. Blackwell of Appomattox, Mrs. George Craddock of Norfolk, Mrs. Curtis W. McCormick and Mrs. Richard Burge of Lynchburg, Mrs. Vendell McMinn of Brockway, Pa., Mrs. Hugh Bailey of Darlington Heights and Mrs. Lindy Hamlett of Farmville. Funeral services will be conducted in New Hope Baptist Church at 3 p.m. today with burial in the church cemetery. Robinson Funeral Home in Appomattox is in charge of arrangements.

TWIRLERS WIN CONTEST

It seems that twirling is here to stay! Friday night at the Appomattox County 4-H Share The Fun Contest, both twirlers won in both the junior and senior divisions. Judy Goodrich, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Goodrich, won in the junior division. She came on stage and sang "The Grand Old Flag", and then gave a beautiful exhibition of twirling, using the Flag Baton. Judy has been studying baton under Lina Trent for four years and has taken many honors in the Baton Contest Circuit. She continues to work she has a chance of becoming another champion.

Lina Trent, the 1960 Virginia State Junior A Champion and the South eastern United States Junior A Champion, won the Senior 4-H Contest and received a scholarship to the State Short Course at Blacksburg, representing Appomattox County in State competition. Lina gave a tap dance and cane baton exhibition, followed by a superb preformance of solo baton twirling, using both one and two batons. She represented the State of Virginia in the junior division at the National Contest held in connection with The Winter Carnival at St. Paul, Minn. in 1960-61.

Lina teaches twirling to 36 students. She receives numerous invitations to perform at various groups and conventions. She is very interested in 4-H work; she designs her own costumes. Lina also finds the time to show her Tennessee Walking horse, Midnight.

PAMPLIN FARMERS CLASS

H. Bruce Aroian Horticulture Department of V. P. I. will discuss Small Fruit Production" at the Pamplin School tonight before interested farmers. The meeting will begin at 7:30 p. m. and is the sixth in a series of meetings being sponsored for the farmers in Pamplin Area by the Pamplin Ruritan Club and The Appomattox County Department of Vocational Agriculture.

Though small fruit production is not carried out on a large commercial scale in this area there is much interest in producing small fruits, strawberries, raspberries, grapes, other berries as a sideline or for home consumption. Mr. Aroian has much experience in working with the production of small fruits and with producers of same.

Next Thursday's topic for the Pamplin farmers will be "Social Security". Mr. Quintus Irby of the Lynchburg District Office of Social Security will lead this discussion. This will be at the Pamplin School on March 9th Other topics planned are: "Federal Farm Programs", For Healthier Livestock" and a field demonstration of Forestry Marketing.

Attendence at both the Thursday night series of meetings and the Monday night farm machinery repair classes had increased over that of the past few years. Both classes are sponsored by the Pamplin Ruritan Club.

The world is jammed with people who believe anything nice that is said about them.

Most adults forget that boys and girls look at things with juvenile minds.

So long as your money holds out you will have plenty of friends to help you spend it.

Children would probably be much better if they didn't have the example of adults to follow.
